

2018 John Wallis Memorial Lecture

GOD, FAMILY
and
OTHER HOME TRUTHS
(faith and teenagers in the internet age)

delivered by

Michael McGirr
family man, theologian, author, teacher

Wednesday 19 September 7pm

Guilford Young College, Hobart Campus, Chapel

flat entry off Brisbane or Patrick Streets

Auslan interpreter. Books for sale. Supper.
suggested donation: $10 or concession/students $5

Michael McGirr

Michael will bring his entertaining and anecdotal style to an evening that will give insights into his, and perhaps our own, faith journey as seen through the lens of family with all its wonderful ups and downs. He will share, with a measure of discretion he assures us, what it is like to ride the bumpy journey to faith and meaning with three teenagers in the internet age.

Michael is Dean of Faith at St Kevin's College, Melbourne. He is an essayist, reviewer, prize-winning short-story writer and teacher.

He has been the publisher of Eureka Street and editor of Australian Catholics and is the author of many books including Snooze: the Lost Art of Sleep, Things You Get For Free and Finding God's Traces.

Michael lives in Melbourne with his wife, three teenage children and a rescue cat who teaches them all to relax.

RSVP to help with catering

Wednesday 12 September 2018

RSVP and further information

Eva Dunn

0417734503

eva.dunn@gmail.com

|                           |      |
|---------------------------|------|
| donation                  | $10 |
| concession cards/students | $5  |

The John Wallis Memorial Lecture is an annual presentation organised by the John Wallis Foundation, Hobart Branch.

For further information about the work of the Foundation, please contact EVA DUNN (details above).

The Hobart Branch thanks Guilford Young College for its ongoing support of this initiative by making its facilities available as an excellent venue for the presentation of the Lecture.